Splashfest – the ultimate free family fun day.

Cruise into Swanbourne Reserve as it is transformed into a wet and wild wonderland on Sunday 12 March.

Splashfest is a day of summer fun for the whole family with water rides, slides and plenty of other fun activities. The event will feature a huge Aqua Rush slide, a pirate ship super slide, a Ninja Challenge obstacle course, water rollers, a bouncy castle, giant games, fairies, mermaids and much more. Best of all, everything is free!

“Splashfest is an opportunity for families to enjoy a summer afternoon by the ocean,” said City of Nedlands Mayor Max Hipkins, “The City is proud to continue to support this fantastic initiative from the Nedlands Youth Advisory Council.”

Children can indulge in all kinds of bouncing, sliding, screaming, spraying, bubbling fun. Meanwhile, adults can relax in the shade and enjoy performances by talented young performers who will make waves in the chill-out marquee. The community event will also have a range of stalls and activities, plus food and drink for sale.

Nedlands Youth Advisory Committee member Jenna Neaves said "Splashfest is always an awesome day. It's fun for everyone and completely free!"
