

Independent Committee Member CEO Recruitment

About the role

In accordance with the Guidelines for Local Government Recruitment and Selection, the City is currently seeking an independent person to join the CEO Recruitment & Selection Committee to assist in the appointment of a long-term CEO.

About the successful candidate

The Independent person being sought will be a City of Nedlands ratepayer, resident or elector, but excludes current elected members or staff members of the local government.

The essence of the role of the independent member is to bring an impartial perspective to the process. The successful candidate will have the ability to participate and constructively contribute to the process.

Examples of who the independent person could be are available on the City's website.

What we offer

The role is an honorary role with reimbursement of costs for travel and meals, as applicable.
