Nedlands needs an independent Councillor who will protect local amenity, restore good governance, ensure responsible financial management and care for our environment.

I will work to restore good governance and integrity, strong financial management and balance sensible development with the preservation of Nedlands unique character. I bring genuine community consultation, integrity in decision-making and strong stable leadership as a truly independent voice.

As an experienced CEO and social advocate for the community, I am known for leading transformation of organisations and improving social services. I am dedicated to making a positive difference to our City and ensuring inclusion, wellbeing and an optimistic future.

With qualifications in Law and Business, I am equipped to scrutinise decisions, demand transparency and deliver fiscal responsibility that puts ratepayers first.

I respectfully ask for your vote. Together we can create a stronger future. Vote KOBELKE #1 for Coastal.
