Fergus Bennett stands for lawful and accountable governance, grounded in a family legacy of service and six years of perfect attendance representing Dalkeith Ward. His focus is protecting Dalkeith's character, foreshore, quiet streets, privacy and natural environment while ensuring residents have a strong voice in planning. His priorities are clear: strengthen planning advocacy; protect neighbourhood amenity; secure funding for local roads, paths and stormwater; grow the tree canopy; support sport and community life; and maintain Dalkeith's parks, reserves and river wall under responsible financial practice and stable governance. His record of staunch DAP representation, environmental stewardship and constructive debate reflects his commitment to serving Dalkeith with honour and respect. As a returning councillor, he offers calm leadership, experience and organisational knowledge to safeguard residents' property rights and quality of life.
