Annual rose pruning day at Peace Memorial Rose Garden

The City of Nedlands will be holding its annual rose pruning day with members of the WA Rose Society leading the way with demonstrations on the finer art of rose pruning – and controlling aphids and other pests.

Scheduled to commence at 10.00am, this event attracts many rose enthusiasts wanting to learn the do's and don't's of rose care.

The City of Nedlands' newly elected Mayor, Ms Fiona Argyle, will be at this event to greet visitors and take part in this "gardener's delight" of an event.

Where: Peace Memorial Rose Garden, Stirling Highway between Vincent and Louise Streets, Nedlands

When: Monday, 19 July 2021 10am to 12pm
