New Tresillian Art Classes –3 May – 25 June

- Book now for Term 2

At the beginning of 2021, more than 600 students enrolled in art classes at Tresillian Arts Centre, Nedlands. The 63 courses on offer were booked out well in advance with more than 50 students waitlisted.

City of Nedlands Deputy Mayor, Leo McManus said the Tresillian program has been continually expanding in scope and delivery year on year to meet the ever-increasing demand by current and potential artists.

“Tresillian has long been a leader in its field and the challenges of last year have called for new initiatives to meet clients’ needs while abiding by COVID-19 restrictions.”

Term 2 commences on 3 May 2021 and enrolments are open from 6 April 2021. Online bookings can be made via www.tresillianartscentre.wa.gov.au so book early to avoid disappointment.

For further information on the Centre’s program of events for 2021 including exhibitions contact Tresillian Coordinator, Lisa Macfarlane-Reid, on lreid@nedlands.wa.gov.au .
