Enchanting Landscapes: An exhibition of oil and watercolour paintings by Holly Razavi

With works inspired by the painter's travels throughout Australia, the UK and Indonesia, Enchanting Landscapes promises to be a captivating exhibition at Tresillian Arts Centre.

Continually in pursuit of a captivating photo opportunity, Holly Razavi seeks inspiration in the beauty of nature – a stormy day with enchanting clouds, a majestic natural wonder or a moody landscape.

It is this inspiration that is showcased in Holly's exhibition at Tresillian Arts Centre.

Holly works mainly in oils and watercolours, and there are more than 20 works for sale.

Holly specialised in print in her textile design degree at the University College Falmouth in England, a course that saw her eventually working for a time at the studio of acclaimed fashion designer Alexander McQueen.

The exhibition runs from 22 May until 31 May. All are welcome to the official opening on Friday 22 May at 6.00 pm.
