Nedlands a hive of activity during the school holidays

The City of Nedlands has a range of activities for kids of all ages, available during the Spring school holiday period.

Fun times range from watching movies, to science and maths experiments, bookclubs, crafts and art classes with some activities continuing through to the end of the year.

The Tresillian Arts Centre is offering a School Holiday Art Program between 1 October and 10 October with different classes for different age groups between 5 and 17 years.

Nedlands and Mt Claremont Libraries have Sunday Screenings, Kids' Chess Club, Pathfinder Tabletop Game (DnD), craft explosion and Lego Club during the school holidays.

Children's Storytime, Baby Rhyme Time, Tween Book Club and Inquisitive Little Minds will be back during school term.

As the warmer weather is on its way, Splashfest is set to come alive again in March 2020, ready to provide an afternoon of wet-n-wild adventure.
