City acknowledges resignation of Councillor Bill Hassell AM

After a long and distinguished term as Councillor for the City of Nedlands, Bill Hassell AM has announced his resignation.

On behalf of the Council and City of Nedlands, Mayor Cilla De Lacy has expressed her thanks and best wishes to Mr Hassell for his dedication to the City and his invaluable advice on local government procedures and community issues.

“I was fortunate to have Bill Hassell as my deputy and I have appreciated his support during these early months on my tenure.

Mr Hassell was elected to the City of Nedlands Council in 2011, following a distinguished career as a State parliamentarian. His resignation is effective from 4 June, 2020.

A special meeting of the Nedlands Council will be held on 16 June, 2020 to appoint a new deputy mayor.

Details of the election for a new councillor will be announced in due course
