Murphy's Lore set to end birthday celebrations on a high note

A renowned Western Australian band featuring two brothers who became household names on Australian Idol will rock the last summer concert at Dot Bennett Park on Sunday 26 February.

One of Perth's best corporate rock bands, Murphy's Lore will take the stage from 5.30 pm to 7 pm in the finale of the 2017 concert series.

The band is fronted by the outstanding vocal and instrumental talent of Chris and Courtney Murphy. Chris is well known for his performance of 'Evie' on Australian Idol in 2006 while his brother Courtney came third on the show in 2004.

The City of Nedlands Mayor Max Hipkins said the brothers have over 17 years in the WA music scene and are sure to impress.

"Murphy's Lore play a diverse range of well-known rock classics and songs to dance to and will have something for everyone. It certainly is an exceptional way to end the birthday celebrations on a high note."

There will also be free fun activities for children including a bouncy castle, fairies, face painting and more. Event-goers can bring along their own picnic basket or enjoy the sausage sizzle or pizza at each event.

"As it is likely to be busy, I encourage concert goers to travel smart and either walk, car pool or bike to the event. Those that travel smart are eligible to win prizes," added Mayor Hipkins.

The City has been proud to have hosted the popular summer concerts for the past 20 years. This year's series has been another success and the City would like to thank its supporters Lotterywest, Caporn Young Estate Agents and the Road Safety Commission.
