

February 2016

Summer is going out with a Splash!

Swanbourne Reserve will be bursting with water rides, slides and plenty of other fun activities on Sunday 13 March. There will also be a diverse program of musical performances by talented young people. Best of all, it's free!

The inaugural event last year proved popular, attracting approximately 2,500 people. This year there will be even more attractions including Aqua Rush, a giant water slide, slip n slide, Ninja Challenge, bouncy castles, water rollers, fairies, mermaids, pirates, bubbles, and a photo booth.

This year we are welcoming some talented young performers to the stage again, including Gen Z, Isobel Green, Urban Limits, Jack Davies, Cantaris Children's Choir and more.

The City of Nedlands YAC member Alexander Smith said that the first Splashfest was "so much fun".

"It was like a theme park in our backyard, and everything was free!" said Alexander.

The City of Nedlands Mayor Max Hipkins said Splashfest was an opportunity for families to enjoy a fun day out together in a beautiful setting.

"This popular water event offers something for everyone." he said.

Amidst the excitement and fun, there will be chill-out zones where people can relax in the shade. There will also be a range of community stalls, along with food and drink for sale.

Don't miss out on this year's Splashfest. Bring your friends and family for a fun day in the sun and water.
