Summers Soul – the perfect way to end a summer’s evening

As birthday celebrations continue, Summers Soul, featuring the magnetic Cathrine Summers, will take to the stage on Sunday 12 February at Masons Garden, Dalkeith.

Celebrating 20 years of Summer Concerts in the community, the Perth cover band will perform a combination of music for all ages including Motown, R&B, Soul and current chart toppers.

The City of Nedlands Mayor Max Hipkins said: “The concerts are an opportunity for family, friends and neighbours to come together and have a picnic in a relaxed environment of our local parks and enjoy some high calibre entertainment.”

The well-established community event is perfect for all ages, showcases a local Perth band each week, along with free children’s activities including a bouncy castle, fairies, face painting and more.
